

Hello! Read Santa Clara provides FREE tutoring for adults who want to improve their reading, writing and/or math.

To become a learner (student), you must:

- Be 16 years or older (and not attending high school)
- Speak enough English to have a conversation
- Read or write at or below an 8th grade level
- Be able to meet 2 hours a week with a tutor in Santa Clara for at least 6 months

How to Become a Learner with Read Santa Clara

Spring 2010

Would you like to read and write better?
Are you ready to learn?

Step #1: Call (408) 615-2956
or go to the Mission Library

You will receive information about the program. If this is not the right program for you, we can help you find other services.

"We're all scared when we come in. But once you're here, it's like family. We need more people to come here to learn how to read and write." - George

Step #2: Go to an orientation (information meeting)

Choose one of the dates below. You do not need to sign-up.

Monday, March 22, 12:30–1:30 p.m.
Tuesday, April 13, 6:00-7:00 p.m.
Wednesday, April 28, 12:30-1:30 p.m.
Monday, May 3, 12:30-1:30 p.m.
Tuesday, May 18, 6:00-7:00 p.m.
Wednesday, June 2, 11:00-12:00 p.m.

Please call (408) 615-2956 if you cannot attend one of these orientations.

Orientations will be held at the Mission Library
1098 Lexington Street, Santa Clara

Step #3: Assessment

We will meet with you one-on-one to learn more about your goals. You can tell us when and where you want to be tutored. We will review your current reading and writing levels. The meeting will take about 2 hours.

Step #4: Meet with your tutor

Your tutor will help you work on the things that are most important to you. You and your tutor will be partners in learning!
